

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Kevin Duffy Promoted to President of Tozour Energy Systems, Inc.

King of Prussia, Pa. (November 23, 2009) — Doug Tozour, CEO of Tozour Energy Systems, Inc. has announced that Kevin Duffy, Chief Operating Officer, will be promoted to President effective immediately.

Duffy has 25 years of experience within the building construction and services industry and a proven history of providing innovative strategies and solutions that promote growth and competitiveness. As COO for Tozour Energy Systems, he handled strategic planning and coordinated corporate and operational business affairs for the company, a leading provider of HVAC and building automation systems comprising Tozour-Trane, Tozour-Trane HVAC Parts & Supplies and Tozour Energy Services.

Duffy is responsible for starting the company's energy services division, establishing Tozour-Trane's building Sustainability Services Center and opening two HVAC parts and supplies sales offices to drive additional growth in the parts business.

"Kevin has displayed excellence in all that he has done over the past five years with the company. Since he joined Tozour Energy Systems in 2004, business has grown by more than 60 percent," said Doug Tozour, CEO. "His leadership skills and strategic focus have positioned Tozour to provide our clients with custom, cost-effective building and energy cost solutions as we move into 2010 and beyond."
